

Community organization	Sedentary	Ranked Society	Chiefdoms
Artifacts	Hoe blades 	Bow and arrow 	Pottery  Spanish trade goods
Foodways	Agriculturalists 	Fish, hunt, and gather 	Grow corn, beans, and squash
Site types	Residential Sites Large towns, villages, and single family sites	Special Purpose Sites	Ceremonial centers with mounds and palisade
Important events/changes	Introduction of corn from Mexico Population increase
900	AD
Woodland	Mississippi Period
*		1350	AD
Site name	Parkin
Site description	Parkin is a Mississippi Period site that was occupied between 1350 and 1600 AD. It was a ceremonial center with mounds and palisades.
*Look at the timeline. Add a beginning and an end date to show when people lived at this site. Shade it in.

Mississippi Period Timeline