

Community organization	Nomadic	Small bands	Egalitarian
Artifacts	Hammerstones adzes and drills	Fishhooks weights and nets Spear points, knives, and scrapers	Atlatl or spearthrower Woven baskets
Foodways	Foragers	Gathered fruit, nuts, & leaves	Hunted deer and small animals
Site types	Base camps	Special use camps	Cemeteries
Important events/ changes	Change in climate - warmer weather Large mammals go extinct		Shift to more sedentary lifeways Gradual shift to plant domestication
12,000	9000	BC	600
Paleoindian	Archaic Period		Woodland
*	8000	BC	1200
Site name	Rockhouse Cave
Site description	Rockhouse Cave is a bluff shelter used by Archaic Indians as a special purpose site to store food, while hunting, gathering, or getting stone.
*Look at the timeline. Add a beginning and an end date to show when people lived at this site. Shade it in.

Archaic Period Timeline: Evidence-based Answer Key

